Boulder, Colorado – Olympic Speedskating Gold Medalist and Olympic Record Holder Casey FitzRandolph has announced that he will be represented by Janey Miller of Janey Miller Management, Inc.

FitzRandolph, who won a gold medal in the 500 meters at the 2002 Winter Olympics and holds the Olympic and American Record in the 500 meters, has his sights set on defending his Olympic title at the 2006 Olympic Games in Turin, Italy.

A Wisconsin native currently residing in Utah, FitzRandolph has spent the past 7 months training in both Salt Lake City and Milwaukee. FitzRandolph is known for his explosive speed, his grueling training regimen and his versatile athleticism. He is focused on preparing for an attack on the 2004-05 World Cup season which kicks off next week in Nagano.

“I am very excited to be working with JMM,” FitzRandolph said. “I have had a great, longstanding relationship with Janey. I believe that her industry expertise and understanding of my goals will help further develop my career, both on and off the ice.”

Miller will represent FitzRandolph through her company Janey Miller Management Inc., a Boulder-based sports marketing company founded on the ambition of providing high quality representation to a select number of elite Olympic athletes.

“I am thrilled to be working with Casey again,” stated Miller. “I had the opportunity to work with Casey throughout the 2002 Olympics and he’s truly an incredible individual. He’s one of those unique athletes that people just gravitate towards. His talent and drive will help him succeed at anything he puts his mind to – his accomplishments at the 2002 Games are certainly an example of that – and he’s set the stage for an exciting performance in 2006.”

Miller has represented a vast number of top Olympic athletes over the years, including Michael Johnson, Dan O’Brien, Dominique Moceanu, Amy Van Dyken, Apolo Anton Ohno, Laura Wilkinson and Natalie Coughlin.
